The East Suburban Artists League is a non-profit association of artists from communities in Allegheny and Westmoreland Counties east of Pittsburgh. Formed over 54 years ago, members include adult artists of all ages who work in all types of media, styles and techniques. They meet to foster arts and crafts and to educate, inspire and encourage artists and patrons throughout this area. This is done by lectures, forums, panels and critiques and by League sponsored shows, displays and juried exhibitions.

ESAL meetings are usually held the first Thursday of each month (September - December; March - May) at 6:30 p.m. in the lower level of Christ Lutheran Church on Route 286 at Logans Ferry Road (in Northern Murrysville) and are highlighted by an informative speaker and/or arts and crafts demonstration by an area artist or expert in their artistic field. Members are also encouraged to bring and show their artwork to the group. The meetings are open to the public and visitors are welcome.

Those interested in joining the East Suburban Artists League may contact our Membership Chair, Peter Cehily (ptcehily@consolidated.net), ESAL's current President, Arlene Holtz (arleneholtz@gmail.com) or attend one of our meetings.

ESAL's 2019 Bi-annual Art Show & Sale

The East Suburban Artists League presents an exhibition of members' artwork at:

The Elaine Biondi Gallery Space
in the Monroeville Public Library
May 31 - July 2, 2019.

An Opening Reception will be held Saturday, June 1st 6-8pm and the public is invited.

Art in all mediums including photography will be exhibited and most of the artwork will be available for sale. A portion of the proceeds will benefit the non-profit group, Friends of the Monroeville Library.

The Monroeville Library's Gallery Space is located at 4000 Gateway Campus Boulevard, off of Mossy Side Boulevard, in the Gateway School Complex. The Gallery is open during the exhibition Monday-Thursday, 9am-9pm, Friday and Saturday, 9am-5pm and closed Sundays.
